Art EXPEDITIONS™

(Patent Pending)

Embrace the spirit of Lewis and Clark and embark on a unique journey to discover your hidden talents in "The Art of Discovery". Empower yourself with an Explorer's curiosity for discovery, documentation and communication.

Master Art Guides, using photography and drawing, lead participants on a journey to celebrate the value of diversity, individual creativity, and historical connections.

Explorers unearth their connection to community and environments producing tangible artwork that visually communicates their vision and represents their personal growth and discoveries through the Art Expeditions experience.

Benefits:

- ◆ Renewed connections to history
- ◆ Focused experiential learning
- ◆ Increased personal growth
- ◆ Strengthened value of diversity
- ◆ New ways to think and explore

"The simple process of translating a visual image on paper helped me to discover my inner feelings and means of expression through different art forms. I believe anyone will find the expeditions a way to enrich one's mind and soul."

William Tao, D. Sc., Chairman (Retired)
William Tao & Assoc., Consulting Engineers
